GRANITE CUTTER FOUND DEAD

Body of Roger Donahue, 37, Discovered under Lumber Pile-Bruise at Hase of Skull.

Montpeller, June 5.-Roger Donahue, 37, shortly before dark near the Montpeller stone-crusher, located near what is try three or four years and was employed known as the Pioneer district. The dis- by John Muller on the Clark farm as a covery of the body was made by two farm hand. He had been very despondent Italians, who found it under a lumber for several weeks, is he had not heard pile. The police and health officer were from his mother for over five months and summoned and the body was removed to when he heard from her last she was in local undertaking establishment.

Donahue had not worked for a week ried over the fact that he had to register and is said to have been much in the and that he might be decided company of two men by the name of Johnson and Henderson, both of whom were closely questioned late to-night by the State's attorney. A bruise was found at the base of the skull, which might or ight not have caused death. An autopsy will be performed to-morrow morning.

Donahue was a brother of Chief of Police Donahue of Northfield and of Mrs. Thomas Sheridan of this city

222 MEN REGISTER.

Work Goes on Quietly in Middlebury.

Louis J. Brousseau First. Middlebury, June 5.-The number of men between the ages of 21 and 31 who registered here to-day was 214. Eight regis-tered by card, making a total of 222. The business of registering was conducted in a very quiet manner at the town hall and until after supper time people came The registering officers were: Town Clerk Joseph M. Burke, Town Moderator James B. Donoway and Willis N. Cady, representing Health Commissioner Dr. Stanton S. Eddy, Mr. Burke being chief registrar. The assistant registrars were: Dr. Howard L. Averill, John H. Stewart, Frank J. Hubbard, Elmer E. Rose, Cushing Hill, Arthur N. Brown, Clinton W. Tisdale, Raymond McFarland, Frank W. Cady, Leroy C. Russell, Phelps Swett, John E. Weeks, A. D. Wright, Fred G. Brookins, Clarence C. Wells and George H. Chaffee. The first man who had the honor to put his name on the registration list was Louis Joseph Brousseau, a painter, and son of George Brousseau of this town.

VERGENNES' TOTAL 105. Registrants Honored by Big Patriotic Demonstration on Park.

Vergennes, June 5.-Registration day was opened here at seven o'clock this morning with the ringing of the church bells and the blowing of the fire whistles Promptly at seven o'clock a large numbe of young men appeared before the registration board at city hall. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Slack, being the first one to register. The total number of registrations was 105,

Ferrisburg Registration day was park this evening by the patriotic service of Montgomery Center. committee in honor of the men who registered. The chairman, the Rev. R. G. Woodbridge, presided. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. H. Mulholland and adaptive the Rev. Rev. W. dresses were given by City Attorney G. scribers are B. W. Hooker, W. Stone, C. T. S. Pierce, department Blanchard, Carlo Chieravalli, commander of the G. A. R., and Judge Amelia C. White, all of Barre. Frank L. Fish. The school childen sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Red, White and Blue," and the Industrial school band played. There was a very large attendance without a country, that is, they would lose their citizenship.

BRITAIN ISSUES CALL

The United States has given to the British recruiting mission the use of its enlistment machinery, and British subjects may volunteer at any United States army recruiting station. Enlisting will begin to-day. It is possible that will be made between London and Washington whereby British subjects of military age who do not respond may be drafted

The call issued by the mission was accompanied by an appeal to British subcts in this country by Gen. T. M. G. Bridges of the British war commission not improbable that King George himself may issue an appeal to his sub-

THEIR AUTO ABLAZE.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whalen of Burlington in Peculiar Predicament.

Middlebury, June 1.-C. A. Whalen, of he Strong Hardware company of Burlington and wife had an experience with their automobile yesterday while near New Haven Junction. They were motoring along, when a hot box on their car caused a blaze. When they discovered what had happened the flames were coming up through the footboard. They suceded in getting out, but Mrs. Whalen had one foot somewhat burned, but not the body ow it was ruined. There was no oss will amount to several hundred dollars. They had to proceed on their journey by train. Frank Warren, a local garage was notified and brought the car back to this village.

REGISTRATION AT BRATTLEBORO, 592

that very few farmers were being reg-intered. Several who were more than 31 years old presented themselves in N. E. M. order to be on the safe side and a few unnaturalized Germans registered. stating that they were ready to fight Uncle Sam. One native of Russia after stating the place where he born added but it is not there now, the Germans have got it.

WIFE OF PLATTSBURGH STUDENT KILLS HERSELF

New York, June 5 .- A woman described as Mrs. Louise Stone, 35 years be present. old, wife of a former assemblyman, who is now at the military training camp at Plattsburgh, N. Y., committe suicide to-night by jumping from a Drive and Eighty-Fourth street. body was impaled on an iron fence.

UTE INDIANS WON'T REGISTER.

Ignacia, Colo. June 5 .- Ute Indiana reservation near here to-day refused to register under the selective draft act and spent most of the da dancing war and "bear" dances, in native costume. A number of the guantity-of liquor.

YOUNG GERMAN A SUICIDE

Milton Farm Hand Had Not Heard from Mother in Pive Months-Worried Over Draft.

Milton, June 3,-Alfred Weisflog, young German about 23 years old, committed suicide by shooting himself yester day morning. He had been in this coun-a hospital. He was also very much worand that he might be drafted. He went after the cows yesterday morning and as he did not return a search was made, but his body was not found until afternoon. He had crawled under the roots of a tree where it had been gullied out and then shot himself, and it was with difficulty that he could be re-He leaves a mother in Germany and a brother who is in the German army.

The funeral and interment will be at dress. Lake View cemetery in Burlington on with much applause.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK AT ST. JOHNSBURY ACADEMY

Will Begin June 10-Class of 50

Graduate.

St. Johnsbury, June 3.—Commencement week at St. Johnsbury Academy begins on Sunday, June 10, when the sarmon to the graduating class will be given by President John M. Thomas of Middlebury College. A class of 50 will graduate this year and an unusually large number are planning to enter college in the fall. Two of the class have already enlisted and others are on the waiting list and ready to serve when they are called. On Montany, June 11, the class will have an outing at Joe's pond in Danville. Tuesday will an home guard, the fire departicular in a to serve when flowed and home guard, the fire departicular in a to serve when they are called. On Montany, Company A. First week at St. Johnsbury, June 3.—Commencement here was marked by perfect order and believe of the beginning along the was marked by perfect order and be service demonstration one of the biggest patriotic demonstration one of the biggest patriotic demonstration one of the days of the resistation. A stream of young men of the registration day. BEST GUARDSMEN WILL

BAISING IN TAIL AND A LIST WAS A STANCE OF TRANCE

BEST GUARDSMEN WILL

BAISING IN TAIL AND A LIST WAS A STANCE OF TRANCE

BAISING IN TAIL AND A LIST W

TWO INCORPORATE.

North Craftsbury Store Has $10,000 and Barre Furniture Co. $30,000 Capital. Montpelier, June 4 .- Articles of association have been filed with secretary of state by the North Craftsopened by the ringing of the church bells for five minutes. Dwight Sears was the first one to register.

A patriotic service was held on the Wright of Colchester and W. L. Wright of Colc Wright of Colchester and W. J. Wright

OVERFLOW AUDIENCE.

"Rural Manhood" Editor Addresses Union Service of Y. M. C. A. War Work. Droubin and the Rev. Father Pontbriand. Middlebury, June 3 .- The Memorial Baptist Church was filled to overflowing TO SUBJECTS IN U. S. this evening for a union service held by the Baptist, Methodist, and Congrega-New York, June 5.—Great Britain has tional Churches. Ernest L. Rand, Addissued a call to the colors to British subson county Y. M. C. A. secretary, presided. The speaker was Henry Israel, editor of 18 and 45 years, of whom there "The Rural Manhood" of New York, and Judge Frank L. Fish of Vergennes will to be 500,000. The call was account. are said to be 500,000. The call was accompanied by a warning from the British recruiting mission that such British turned from a trip to France in the property of the control of the con ish recruiting mission that such British turned from a trip to France and Engsubjects in this country who did not en- land, and he gave an address descriptive of the Y. M. C. A. work in the war, and told of scenes that he witnessed in hospitals and prison camps. The congrega-

CO. H NOW HAS 130.

brought in and placed in the aisles.

tion was so large that chairs had to be

Regiment-Only Had 35 Month Ago. Montpeller, June 5.-The efforts of Captain D. E. McMath of Company H to recruit his company up to full strength have been very successful, the company now numbering 130, being the largest in the regiment. When Captain McMath came to Montpelier to establish recruiting headquarters a month ago the com pany numbered only 35, so that through ted States. towns, especially Groton, have contributed nearly 100 young men.

IN RECREATION SERVICE.

W. P. Jackson to Work in Communitie Adjacent to Military Campa

St. Albans, June 3 .- W. P. Jackson, for seven years pastor of the First Congregational Church in this city and for the past five years superintendent of the Stranshan Memorial club, has been asked to the communities adjocent to military camps. Mr. Jackson does not know when he will leave the city, but he is subject to call.

DESTROYED GARDEN.

Mrs. Abraham Gould Pays Fine of $1

and Costs of $7.85 for Exploit. Montpeller, June 4.—Mrs. Abraham Gould was arrested to-day on the charge Brattleboro, June 5.—The registra of destroying the garden of L. Carr, a tion here to-day in preparation for neighbor, who resides on Harrison avethe selective draft showed a total of nue. Mr. Carr completed the planting of the selective draft showed a total of flue.

592 names, which is about 200 less the garden Sunday and it was alleged than the registration board estimated Mrs. Gould went in and spoiled it. She this morning. It was noticeable all day was fined $1 and costs, a total of $7.85, less the garden Sunday and it was alleged treasury department said the results of off Wednesday evening with a meeting under the auspices of the N. E. M. P. Other meetings for the county will be as follows: Waterbury, June 6; Duxbury, 7; Waitsfield, 8; Moretown 9; Middlesex, 11; Northfield, 12; Shady Rill. 15; Barre. 16; Wil- persons were killed, several injured and of the church. The next annual illamstown, 18; Plainfield, 20; East great property damage done in a severe ling will be held in Starksboro. Rill. Montpelier, 20; Marshfield, 21. M. H. Moody of this town is the county president and M. J. Corliss of Montpelier cia, Maple Hill and Menoken were in the secretary. A speaker from away will storm's path.

> N. E. M. P. A Meetings. Waterbury, June 5 .- Waterbury leads

ned on the farm of W. P. Nolan of St. hobors, and had taken a vow against Albans point.

DEMONSTRATION AT BUTTE. Butte, Mont., June 5 .- In consequence the gathering of a large crowd near the federal building, sheveral shots be-ing fired and a number of arrests made, the situation here to-right began to vounger men are said to be out in the look so threatening that the troops cal association in convention here. The hills near here, and to have obtained a were called out and with fixed bayon-memorial will be sent to President Wilets now are clearing the streets.

tration Day Brought Out Firemen and Caused Mill to Close.

(Special to the Free Press.)) Stowe, June 5 .- The ringing of the announced the beginning of registra-tion day, but when in addition to it the fire bell on the town hall began to ring rushed out and the Burt company mill shut down before the reason was dis-

Raeburn R. McMahon was the first young man to register. At one o'clock the number had reached 60 and it was expected there would be 100 or 125 There was a large attendance at the Akeley Memorial building in the afternoon, when the Hon. Roger Hulburd of Hyde Park gave an open air address L. L. Harris preside. Prayer was of-fered by the Rev. H. W. Cummings. The Rev. A. M. Smith gave a short ad The speakers were received

PATRIOTIC CELEBRATION REGISTRATION DAY

Rutland Has Parade, Flag-Raising and Speeches.

ing at Joe's pond in Danville. Tuesday Rutland home guard, the fire depart-tually intact.

evening comes the class concert and Wed-ment and city officials participated. It Philadelphia newspapers to-day named nesday afternoon the class day exercises.

Miss Mary H. Dinsmore has the class depot park witnessed by over 5,000 are now doing guard duty, as having rewill; Charles F. Branch the class people. Three Grand Army men pulled coived orders which were construed to the history and Donald M. McWain the class prophecy; Miss Mildred G. Symes the class by 20 feet to the top of a pole 100 feet officials will not confirm this report.

Model of the prophecy of the greensward. Postmaster P. The general understanding is that the people of the prophecy of the greensward. be held on Thursday morning and on M. Meldon was the speaker of the Pershing expedition and the troops which Thursday afternoon there will be a public day. He designated the day as one follow will go in small contingents. inspection of the academy cadets. The exercises of the week close on Thursday evening with a dance in the Armory.

The designated the day as one look will go in small contingents.

of consecration, not celebration. He life American soldiers are handled like paid tribute to the Red Cross splendid work, urged support of the Liberty spend some time in the trenches on portions of the front which are relatively to victory in putting down Prussian 100 FAIL TO REGISTER.

1,020 Men in Barre Are Signed-Many Foreigners Missing.

Barre, June 5 .- One thousand and wenty men registered here to-day for military service. Nearly 100, it is estimated, failed to register. It is believed

Notre Dame des Victoires. Sixty-three as an "incompetent," and the secrets: of the interior is not sure that it would bishop was assisted by the Rev. Father Drouhin and the Rev. Father Pontbriand.

The government heard of Barnett's

Judge Fish to Preside.

of the June term of Caledonia county court was adjourned by the assistant feller of the Indiana, is bothered over judges to-day until Tuesday. June 12 having so much money and wishes the owned the property.

The house was

You can get relief from racking, hacking coughs, from wheezy, sneezy breathing, from raw, inflamed throat and tight chest. W. G. Glazier, Bentonville, Ark., writes: "I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I used it for a cough that I had for years, and was said have consumption, but it cured me." Montpelier Organization Largest in Medical Hall, J. W. O'Sullivan, 30 Church street. (Adv.)

FORCED TO KISS FLAG. Racine, Wis., June 5.-John Robush, pany numbered only 35, so that through ted States. The man was made to of St. Johnsbury being the speakers. his efforts Montpelier and surrounding crawl on his knees to the flag, which State Commissioner of Education Milo after kissing it, compelled to salute. ice at Barton to-night. The police informed him he would be arrested if he failed to register be-fore the close of the booths to-night.

NAVAJOS RAISE OBJECTION.

Flagstaff, Art., June 5,-Navajo Inlians drove an Indian agent and other federal officers off the government reservation one hundred miles southeast of here to-day, when the latter went work during the war in the national war army selective draft bil, according to in an effort to recruit Company B to full to register the Indians under the war

NOT A GERMAN PLOT.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 5.-Railroad officials investigating the finding of a large timber on the track in front of the train which last night Major-General Leonard bore Wood from Chattanooga to Birmingham, are inclined to believe the obstruction fell from a passing freight train and that its presence was merely an accident.

SUCCESS OF LOAN CERTAIN. Washington, June 5.-Secretary McAdor in a statement issued to-night at the She the Liberty loan campaign thus far had been "immensely gratifying" and that "if there is no let up in the work success is certain." He emphasized that it was not intended that the tentative allotment of bonds among the federal reserve dis- | nual meeting time ago should be considered as representing maximum requirement

Topeka, Kans., June 5.-At least three persons were killed, several injured and wind storm which swept through Shawnee county late to-day. Elmont, Valen

CYCLONE KILLS THREE

DOUKHOBORS REFUSE.

EAT LESS MEAT; MORE CORN. New York, June 5.—A resolution urging the American people to eat less meat and more corn, rice, and barley products as substitutes was adopted to-day by the house of delegates of the American Medison, Herbert C. Hoover and to Congress.

pensation, Says Commissioner of Industries R. W. Simonds.

Montpeller, June 4.—A decision which holds that acknowledged illegitimate children are entitled to compensation has been made by R. W. Simple of the center of interest, as there it was that the young men of St. Albans of conscription age presented the pendents of John Wood, alias John Powers, applicants, vs. Shakshober and Barber, employer, of Bennington. John Wood was injured the first of December, 1915, and died several weeks later. Application for compensation by the wife was disaligned by the size of the seven o'clock this morning until late this evening the city hall was the center of interest, as there it was that the young men of St. Albans of conscription age presented themselves for registration. The hall had been conveniently arranged by Chief Registrar B. M. Hopkins and at no time speed of the bullet had been partially spent by striking a tree and it did little actual injury aside from a severe bruise in the right side. It is the belief of Dr. C. B. Ross, who was called, that the corset worn by the young woman saved her from the city hall was the center of interest, as there it was that the young men of St. Albans, June 5.—From seven o'clock West Rutland struck Miss Lens Bishop. W of a timely and patriotic nature. There of the two children and a hearing held was music by the Stowe Military band. at Bennington and the following questions considered: Are the two children the illegitimate children of Wood, acknowledged by him, and are they entitled to compensation.

The commissioner finds that they are illegitimate children, so acknowledged, and orders that their guardian be paid $2.75 a week for a period of 260 weeks.

were in St. Johnsbury to-day conducting a hearing.

pacifist and predicted that the Amer-quiet, and later be moved along to points ican flag would lead the boys in khaki where the big push is taking place. New French troops invariably are placed among veteran units, a raw regiment, flanked on either side by a veteran regi-Ultimately the American forces will be together

WEALTHY INDIAN WANTS TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Washington, June 5 .- Jackson Barsett, the wealthiest Indian in the mated, failed to register. It is believed world, a full-blood Creek, living near that many of these are foreigners who Henryetta, Okla., wants to let the govfailed for some reason or other to under-stand the significance of Registration day, bonds, and the department of the in-terior is trying to find a way to do it.

Confirms 143 Children.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it.

The differing is trying to find a way to do it. Confirms 143 Children.

The difficulty is that Barnett, not Mary's Church, and John T. Cushing, St. Johnsbury, June 3.—A class of 143 being able to read or write and have editor of the Messenger. boys and girls were confirmed to-day by ing a guardian appointed by law to the Rt. Rev. J. J. Rice of Burlington at protect his interests, is regarded wish to convert his wealth into Liberty bonds, when Carl J. O'Hornett, the Indian's guardian, a banker of

HAS 707 MEN.

St. Johnsbury Has Patriotic Service to

Mark Registration Day. St. Johnsbury, June 5.-The registra and 31 to-day was 707. One of the pathetic incidents of the registration was the answer of a Russian, who stated on his card that he had a wife and two children dependent up but they were in the hands of the Germans. An outdoor patriotic service at which the speakers were the Hon. Alexander foreigner employed at the J. I. Case Dunnett, the Rev. F. B. Richards and Tin company plant, was forced to kiss Captain H. A. Wilcox of D company the American flag by his fellow em- was held this evening. A similar servployes to-day after he is alleged to ice was held at Lyndonville, Principal have declared that he would not reg-ister and would not fight for the Uni-Institute and the Hon. Frank Brooks een spread upon the floor and B. Hillegas spoke at a similar serv-

TO RECRUIT CO. B.

Captain Pell to Seek to Bring It Up to Requisite Strength.

St. Albans, June 5 .- Captain C. E. Pell of this city, now at Fort Ethan Allen, as acting major of the first battalion of the First Vermont Infantry, V. N. G., will war strength. Captain Pell states that men are needed to bring the organization up to the requistie strength.

526 IN MONTPELIER.

Estimated That 50 Failed to Register in Capital City.

Taking out the number of local men voted to liquor prosecutions from this enlisted in various branches of the vicinity. Jury trials were had in the service of the United States, it is estiservice of the United States, it is estimated that there were 50 who should seph Rossi, resulting in acquittals, have registered and did not. The registering went on slowly.

To Meet Next in Starksboro. Middlebury, June 5 .- The 84th anthe bonds among the federal reserve dis-tricts and various cities announced some Baptist association was held in the guilty town. Dinner and supper were served Abbott, the last for transportation, in the church parlors by the ladles have not been disposed of. Antonio of the church. The next annual meet-

> Convenes but to Adjourn Middlebury, June 4.-The June term of Addison county court will convene at ten o'clock to-morrow morning, but in conse-quence of National Registration day and who is now at the military training amp at Plattsburgh, N. Y., committed amp at Plattsburgh, N. Y., committed suicide to-night by jumping from a window of her apartment on the lighth floor of a house at Riverside or ive and Eighty-Fourth street. Her three cows were killed and two stunded was impaled on an iron fence.

Lightning Kills Cows.

Phoenix, Ariz., June 5.—Three hundred Russian colonists, trans-Caucasians, settled near Glendale, nine miles west of phoenix, declined to register to-day and Wednesday, no business will be transported and miles west of three cows were killed and two stunded was impaled on an iron fence. GRAND ISLE BANKRUPTCY.

> Rutland, une 5.—Abert A. Bohanon of Grand Isle, a merchant, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. He has liabilities of $1,560 and assets of $1,200,

THOUGHT THERE WAS A FIRE MAKES IMPORTANT DECISION 562 REGISTER IN ST. ALBANS VERMONT NOTES

Only One Attempted Evasion in Asawers Many Allens of Military Age, One a French Soldler.

St. Albans, June 5.-From seven o'clock

December, 1915, and died several weeks later. Application for compensation by the wife was disallowed by the industrial accident board, because she was not with nor dependent upon the deceased at the time of his death.

Application was then made in behalf of the two children and a hearing held of the two children and a two children are two children and the two children are two children and the two children are two children and the two children are two children and two children are two children and the two children are two children and two children are two children a back claimed that it was due to nervous-

A striking feature was the number of Bishop. allens of military age who presented themselves. Most of this number were Canadians. Among them, however, was one, Yves Enisan, a native of Bowdowvalled, France, who had served in the French army a year and a half and participated in the fighting along the their usual places of daily occupation.

Just inside the doorway of the hall at a table sat Miss Neille E. Aher, assistant city clerk, and as the young men entered they formed in line in front of this table On a card Miss Aher wrote the name, address and age of each one in his turn and as a young man received his card he was sent to a table where was seated a were made out and given to the ap-The following were the men appointed by Mayor J. B. Maun to carry on the registration: Chief registrar, B. M. Hopkins; registrars, E. A. Tougas, C. H. Anderson, Henry S. Brigham, P. P. Partlow, H. M. Dewart, Gordon R. Farr, N. N. Atwood, H. W. Ballard, Roswell M. Austin, John T. Cushing, Theodore B. Houghton, S. S. Watson, P. E. Sullivan, Frank E. MacArthur, M. H. Alexander J. C. Boyle, George M. Cota, B. G. Skin-registrar. There the registration blanks ner and the Rev. George F. Fortier. Shortly before nine o'clock Troop the boy acoute marched to the Stranahan club on North Main street where it was joined by the Fonda Guards and the two organisations marched back to Taylor park where a large number of people had

FARM BUILDINGS BURN.

-No Water Protection.

Montpeller, June 3 .- Farm buildings at Browns' Mills, two miles from this city St. Johnsbury, June 5.—The opening of the June term of Caledonia county court was adjourned by the assistant Barnett, who is regarded as the Rockecovered by insurance. Joseph Delary

The house was occupied by from the barn.

Tell of Y. M. C. A. War Work. St. Johnsbury, June 4 .- Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brooks opened their home this evening, when 200 from t. Johnsbury and vicinity gathered to hear about what Vermont can do in aiding the Y. M. C. A. work in the military camps. It was expected that Mr. Baer of the war work council would speak. furnished three substitutes. State Y. M. C. A. Secretary Byron N. Clark, Chaplain Paul D. Moody of the 1st Vermont. and F. C. Purinton of the Chittenden county committee.

RESIGNS AGAIN.

Rev. H. L. Canfield to Leave Woodstock

Pastorate July 1. Woodstock, June 5 .- The Rev. H. Canfield has announced that he will complete his pastorate with the versalist Church on July 1. Mr. Canfield resigned several weeks ago on account of differences regarding his pa-cific sympathies, but was asked by his parishioners to reconsider the matter. This is his second pastorate at Woodthe two terms making a total of 13 or 14 years.

Liquor Cases Occupy Court.

Bethel, June 5 .- Windsor county court, which met in extra sessi Montpelier. June 5.—Montpelier's weeks ago, took a recess Saturday total registration of men between the conscript ages of 21 and 31 is 526, time of the court last week was derespondents and several others. "Joe" Edmunds and Bert Blanchard both pleaded guilty to charges of furnishing and were placed under probation being required to pay costs of $40 each. Mrs. Antonio Guerra pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months Memorial Baptist Church here to-day in the house of correction. The cases with a very large attendance, more of Nicola Palmento, Mrs. Antonio Airthan 100 being present from out of colli, Mrs. M. Piedmonte and Roy A. awaiting trial.

> NEW BANK RECORD Washington, June 4.—Resources of the country's national banks have Comptroller Williams announced tonearly two billion since a year ago.

Reserves of $948,000,000 with reserve agents. $762,000,000 with reserve banks and $763,000,000 in their own vaults were reported by the banks, the combined total with reserve banks and in vault exceeding legal requirements by $26,000,000. with $50 claimed exempt. Burlington creditors are: H. P. Prindle, $44; Vermont Fruit company, $24; J. O. Middle-brook, $5.50; Hobart J. Shanley, $29.72; H. M. Coon, $8.50.

News Items of the State Gathered Here and There.

the time was rocking in her arms a small There was one attempted evasion in child, daughter of her sister. Mr. Hoadley giving answers, but the man when called was out in the yard, shooting at either child, daughter of her sister. Mr. Hoadley chickens or birds when one of the bullets struck a tree, glanced and hit Miss

ACCUSED OF ASSAULT.

Gaetano Rosso, aged 20, a barber in Barre, has been arrested on a breach of the peace charge, the complaint alleging that Rosso committed an assault on Benthat Rosso committed an assault on Ben-jamin Gasparello, editor and publisher of at a mark. Calbret placed the butt of the Il Corriere Italiano, a weekly newspaper. Rosso was admitted to ball of $500. He claims he does not even know the editor. It gun, having forgotten that it was claims he does not even know the editor. I calbret had been employed a Alsne river in the present war. He was

RUTLAND NAVY MAN ILL.

Word has been received of the serious liness of Henry T. Bolduc, son of Henry soldue of Rutland, who is a member the United States navy, at the Newport station. Young Bolduc is only 17, and was a student of the Rutland Business College when he enlisted. He had an attack of measles, followed by pneumonia, followed by another illness with measles. He s now suffering from spinal meningitis.

IN BEAUTY CONTEST.

Miss Ruth Holm of Somerville, Mass. formerly of Rutland, has qualified for a eauty and popularity contest in a Boston newspaper. She was chosen from 300 candidates from whom 24 were later M. Thomas of Middlebury. elected. The competitors finally dwindled to three and she was ultimately chosen PARDONED IN ORDER TO FIGHT. On condition that he return to Italy and join the army, Vito Turciano, convicted in Rutland county court of the murder of Accarito Santoro, has been pardoned by Governor Graham and released from the State prison at Windsor, where he was serving a life term. was taken to New York yesterday after- an ambulance driver. release is due to the efforts of a brother who came East a short time ago, found Vito, whom he had not heard from in years, serving his prison term, and immediately set to work to have him freed. The murder was committed in 1908, when Santoro was lured to a place near the '76" bridge. It was claimed that Santoro had been following a girl by the name of Black. Four men gathered at the bridge and when Santoro arrived jumped from the bushes. The men were masked and one of the masks fell and Turciano called out, "He recognizes me, I must kill him." with two bullet wounds and several stab wounds in his body.

TWO SONS IN THE SERVICE. Otto R. Bennett, editor of the Manchester Journal, has two sons in the serv- the Council of National Defense ice. G. S. Bennett was a member of the families, Joseph Delary and Ernest Hill. National Guard and saw service all last
The barn caught first, sparks from the summer on the border at Texas, but has chimney of the house being the cause. The been furloughed to the National Guard children to and from a district school, the furnishings and all of the cattle and ber of the reserve officers' training camp horses were released, some hens and at Plattsburgh. He is a member of the chickens being lost. No efforts could be senior class of Norwich University and George Lawrence, railroad fireman, made to save the buildings because of ranked second in class in his academic trell, Miss., writes: "I used three tion of males between the ages of 21 the inability to get water. The buildings work, but was at the head of the uniwere connected, the house catching fire versity for the past year in his military ing first lieutenant and adjutant of the battalion at Norwich University.

ITALIAN EDITOR ATTACKED. Benjamin Gasparello, editor and publaher of Il Corrierre Italiano, a weekly newspaper issued, in Italian, in Barre, was struck down by a mysterious assailant in that city. Gasparello received a deep scalp wound which required several stitches to close.

FAMOUS TENOR A SUMMER VISITOR tenor this summer. Johann Sembach, the great German tenor of the Metropolitan Opera house in New York, and Mrs. Semor not. The groans of our wounded bach have taken a cottage at Point of have not yet reached our ears. The Pines, Lake Bomoseen. They have spent casualty lists of our dead have not yet day or two as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eisler in Rutland before going to their summer home. Mr. Eisler is a conductor at the Metropolitan and has been LOST CONTROL OF AUTOMOBILE.

accompaniat for Mme Gadaki

Mrs. Thomas Christie and daughter, Leons, of Concord, were injured and the automobile in which they were riding was badly damaged when the brake bar of the machine snapped, causing the women started down the steep hill known can save from current income as the Raiston Corner road when, upon from additional economies will machine went on down the hill at a high rate of speed. Mrs. Christie became panic stricken and when the machine was about wo-thirds of the way down, leaped from the car. She was picked up in an uno guide the on-rushing car to the foot of but at the foot of the hill comes a sharp When the curve was reached the speed was so great that, though the driver nade great efforts to guide the machine, t turned turtle. She was pinned under he machine. A man saw her plight and with great efforts moved the machine so that the young woman could be taken from under. Miss Christie suffered the fracture of an arm in two places, and a TO CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS.

The involuntary bankruptcy case of F. L. Gray of Middletown Springs, manueached another high record. Colonel facturer, in which the Clement National bank, the Rutland County National bank and the Allen National bank of Fair Haal Registration day and ndance of County Clerk inght that on May 1, the date of the last bank call the assets of the banks of the petitioning creditors, will be tousiness will be transied aggregated $16.144,000,000 an increase taken to the United States circuit court of appeals. Judge Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury was in Rutland Friday to be and the Allen National bank of Fair Harland to be petitioning creditors, will be taken to the United States circuit court of appeals. Judge Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury was in Rutland Friday to be appeals. preside at a session of the district court when a motion to amend the original peti-tion of the creditors was considered. Judge Howe granted the right to amend and counsel for the alleged bankrupt signified their attention to take the matter to the appeals court as to the legality of the Vermont court's decision. Priday's proceedings mark the first step of Mr. be no excuse for "hindering patriotic Gray to fight the bankruptcy proceedings. women from going." Joseph T. Stearns of Burlington, as contending that the original powers not allege that Gray had continued in act of bankruptcy by giving prefere to any creditors nor that he had tre It was because of this that the attorneys for the creditors, Webber & Webber, Harmon following payment of all ex-penses in connection with the March term of Rutland county court, one of the most economical sessions held in some time. Usually the term costs $5,000.

HIT BY TRAIN, BUT UNHURT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntzinger of West Rutland narrowly escaped injury when the westbound D. & H. freight train at the Monthan crossing about a mile West Rutland. The engine hit the front end of the car, swerving it to one

CHARGE WENT INTO HEART.

Edward Calbret, aged 17 years, of Wilmington, was almost instantly killed at Mountain Mills, near Wilmington, while short time by the Deerfield Valley Pulp company. His father and stepmother in Massachusetts.

VERMONT BREVITTES Newport milkmen have raised the prin of milk to 10 cents a quart.

A banquet for Company A was held in Ruthand, 18 members of the company at-

A benefit given under auspices of the Woman's club in Rutland netted $110.30 to be used on call for Vermonters in federal service

St. Johnsbury Academy is to have its commencement exercises on June 10, with the sermon preached by President John The industrial committee of the to represent the city, being known as Chamber of Commerce in Bellows Falls is considering a proposition to aid the Wheeler laundry which was completely put out of business by fire, in re-estab lishing itself. The Rev. W. G. French has resigned the pastorate of the Congregational Church in Hardwick and will act as supply at Danville during the absence of the Rev. A. C. Adams, who is in France as

There were 22 commitments to the house of correction at Rutland in May.

Colliding while riding a bicycle with another cyclist, Napoleon Ianni of Rutbrain.

bruises on her head and Mrs. George At-kinson's arm was broken when their horse ran away at Newbury Working on a locomotive boiler at Is-land Pond, Nelson Chevrier fell from a

Mrs. Harry Hibbard received cuts and ladder, fracturing his shoulder and sprain ing his elbow. Mrs. Oliver C. Ashton of Rutland has been appointed temporary chairman for Vermont of the woman's committee of

STOPPED HIS BACKACHE.

George Lawrence, railroad fireman, Kitties of Foley Kidney Pills when I was so sick I hardly could stay on the engine work. The past year he has been rank-ing first lieutenant and adjutant of the time; kidneys acted sluggish; dull headache; felt sleepy all the time; ner-vous; had to rise many times each night." dedical Hall, J. W. O'Sullivan, 30 Church

> Insure against Ghastly Defeat! The American people have plunged into the gulf of war and they must fight their way out with sword and street.

The sword of victory will be forged from the dollars of the people. The Liberty Loan will help to win the war. Vermont is to entertain a world famous The alternative is an overwhelming disaster for us.

> been posted. The full force of our sacrifice has not yet been felt. But these will come. The United States has to fight its way to liberty by wading through blood and every American home will feel the solemn nature of the death-grapple. The world can be "made safe for democracy" only after a year or and money. Our 500,000 army of liberation will fight in Europe; but the real fight will machine to get beyond the control of be at home to back up that army with Miss Christle, who was driving. The two dollars. Every dollar that the people > needed. No man is exempt. No man is too poor to do his bit by subscribing for a Liberty Lean bond, a $50 bond, or a $100 bond. It is the duty of every man to make conscious condition. Miss Christie, with a solemn effort to save up for the a wonderful display of nerve, stuck to her purchase of a bond. In doing so he not only insures victory in place of defeat for the United States, he not only insures his own savings in a giltedged interest bearing convertible ininuance of business and industry and of his own occupation. Take out your war insurance to-day: but a Liberty

DEATH OF MRS. LAMONT.

New York, June 5 .- Mrs. Julia Kin shattered collarbone. Mrs. Christie is ney Lamont, widow of Daniel Scot thought to have sustained internal in-thought to have sustained internal in-juries, but this is uncertain. bany Argus, private secretary to Grover Cleveland, and later secretary of war in Cleveland's cabinet, died to-day at her home in Millbrook Dutchess county, N. Y.

> MRS. PANKHURST MAY GO. London, June 5, 11:00 p. m.—The gov-ernment has promised facilities to a deputation from the Women's Social and olitical union, headed by Mrs. Em-meline Pankhurst, the militant suffrag-ette, to proceed to Russia to explain ette, to proceed to Russia to explain their views on the war. Mrs. Pankhurst last week requested passports from Preplier Lloyd George for hes party. In her letter she said that if the government permitted James Ram-say MacDonald, the labor leader, and his party to go to Russia to preach "their unpatriotic doctrine" there could

usel for Mr. Gray, raised a question FREE PRESS WANT ADS. PAY SEST